I would say that you need me.

I have reddish hair, a slight build, Dutch is my mother tongue, and I speak French fluently (albeit with a Dutch accent). Next to that, although I've worked as an actor, my main occupation now is as a visual artist which means I can very well relate to the sentiments of Van Gogh.

Having said all this, I wasn't planning on coming to L.A. in the coming time so if you're interested we could maybe arrange a casting by teleconference.

Regards,

Eric Schrijver
